8/2/2016
For Immediate Release:

MORRISTOWN— The town of Morristown and Mayor Timothy Dougherty are proud to present the 2016 Morristown Jazz & Blues Festival. The festival will take place on Saturday, August 20, 2016 from noon to 10 p.m. on the Morristown Green. The event is free and open to the public. Parking will be available throughout the town and in the public lots near the Green. The festival is entering its sixth year and will feature several notable jazz and blues artists.

George Gee Swing Orchestra, 12pm - 2pm
The opening act, The George Gee Swing Orchestra will play music from the Swing Era.

The Bucky Pizzarelli Quartet, 2pm - 4pm
Bucky Pizzarelli and his quartet will be returning to the festival this year to celebrate Pizzarelli’s 90th birthday.

Louis Prima Jr. and the Witnesses, 4pm - 6pm
The son of famous singer, Louis Prima, is carrying on his father’s legacy with his own band.

Quinn Sullivan, 6pm - 8pm
Blues guitarist Quinn Sullivan is only 16 years old and has a debut album that hit #7 on Billboard’s blues album chart.

Robert Randolph and the Family Band, 8pm - 10pm
Pedal steel guitarist Robert Randolph has toured with Eric Clapton and Dave Matthews and has been named on the top 100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time by Rolling Stone Magazine.

“I am extremely excited for this year’s festival,” said Mayor Tim Dougherty, “We have so many great performers and I’m glad that we are able to give people an opportunity to enjoy some music with their friends and family”. Dougherty launched the project in 2010 and it has had great success.

For more information visit morristownjazzandblues.com or email info@morristownjazzandblues.org. If you are interested in becoming a sponsor for this event, call 973-644-3293. The festival has been made possible with the support of the following

###

Susie Sefcik
Direct Development PR
susie.sefcik@directdevelopmentpr.com
732.864.6865