

 PRESS CONFERENCE**

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 2015 AT 10AM**

MEDIA ALERT

Contact: Cole Media Inc
973-609-2445, scole@colemediainc.com

MORRISTOWN MAYOR TIMOTHY P. DOUGHERTY TO ANNOUNCE THAT MORRISTOWN UNIFORMED POLICE OFFICERS WILL IMMEDIATELY BEGIN WEARING BODY-WORN VIDEO CAMERAS

Morristown Mayor Timothy P. Dougherty and Police Chief Peter Demnitz to announced that all uniformed police officers of the Morristown Bureau of Police will have body-worn video cameras while they are on duty. Morristown is the first city to implement this program after participating in the Urban Mayors Roundtable in Newark last fall.

Who: Morristown Mayor Timothy P. Dougherty
Morristown Chief of Police Peter Demnitz
Jersey City Mayor Steven Fulop, Urban Mayors Roundtable
Morristown Area Interfaith Clergy Council, Reverend Cynthia Alloway, President
PBA President, Brian LaBarre

What: Press conference to announce body-worn video cameras to be used by Morristown Police

Details: Morristown Mayor Timothy P. Dougherty and Police Chief Peter Demnitz to announce the immediate use of 40 body-worn video cameras on all uniformed police officers of the Morristown Bureau of Police while they are on duty. The town is utilizing this technology to ensure the protection of both residents and officers.

Police officers will be on site to demonstrate the use of the body-worn video cameras

When: Tuesday, May 19, 2015
10 A.M.

Where: Morristown Town Hall
200 South Street
Morristown, NJ

///