Pedestrian Struck by Vehicle on Madison Avenue.

On Monday, 06/25/2018 at approximately 5:00pm, Morristown Police were dispatched to the intersection of Madison Avenue at Franklin Street on a report of a pedestrian struck by a motor vehicle. On arrival, officers determined that a 33 year-old woman from Morris Township had been crossing Madison Avenue towards Franklin Street when she was struck by a 2018 Lexus being operated by 37 year-old Yuko Yamada of Morristown. Officers conducted interviews and spoke with independent witnesses who confirmed that the pedestrian had been in the marked crosswalk at the time of the collision as the Lexus made the turn from Franklin Street onto Madison Avenue.

As a result of the collision, the pedestrian suffered non-life threatening injuries and was transported to the Morristown Medical Center where she was treated and released. Ms. Yamada was found to be at fault in this incident and was issued a motor vehicle summons for failing to yield to a pedestrian in a crosswalk.
